Client: FOSHAN LEISURE TOUCH FURNITURE CO., LIMITED

Contact Information: No.6 store,4th floor,(Qiangfa Wood store)the east side of Dongcun village section, Guangzhan Rd, Lecong Town, Shunde district, Foshan City, P. R. China

Test item(s): 2 materials

Identification/
Model No(s): BRUSHED ALUMINUM
STYLE 1: CHAMPAGNE COLOUR
STYLE 2: ALUMINUM COLOUR

Condition at delivery: Test item complete and undamaged.

Sample Receiving date: 2022-06-02

Testing Period: 2022-06-14 to 2022-06-17

Place of testing: Chemical laboratory Guangzhou

Test Specification:

Remark:

* Regulation on Lead:

Country	Legislation	Maximum Permissible Limit
EU	Paragraph 1-6 of Entry 63 of Annex XVII, REACH Regulation (EC) No. 1907/2006	For Jewellery, imitation jewellery, hair accessories, bracelets, necklaces , rings, piercing jewellery, wrist watches, wrist-wear, brooches and cufflinks and parts used for jewellery-making  0.05% (by weight of the individual part)
	Paragraph 7-10 of Entry 63 of Annex XVII, REACH Regulation (EC) No. 1907/2006	Articles supplied to the general public during normal or reasonably foreseeable conditions of use, be placed in the mouth by children  0.05% (by weight of the individual part)  The limit shall not apply where it can be demonstrated that the rate of lead release from such an article or any such accessible part of an article, whether coated or uncoated, does not exceed 0,05 µg/cm <sup>2</sup> per hour (equivalent to 0,05 µg/g/h), and, for coated articles, that the coating is sufficient to ensure that this release rate is not exceeded for a period of at least two years of normal or reasonably foreseeable conditions of use of the article.

2. Screening of Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) subject to the Candidate List by European Chemical Agency (ECHA) according to Regulation (EC) No. 1907/2006 of REACH and its amendments.

Obligation of Importer is necessary if the detected SVHC concentration in article level is >0.1%:
To communicate information down the supply chain according to article. 33 of REACH. OR

1. Notification to ECHA, if the quantities of SVHC in the produced/imported articles are above 1 ton in total per year per company.
2. Provide sufficient information to ensure safe use of the article and, as a minimum, include the name of the substance, to their customers and on request to consumers within 45 days of the receipt of this request.

Test Method:    1) SVOC: organic solvent extraction, determination by GC-MS/ECD
                  2) VOC: organic solvent extraction, determination by GC-MS
                  3) VVOC: headspace-GC/MS analysis
                  4) non-VOC: organic solvent extraction, determination by LC-MS/MS.
                  5) inorganics: acid digestion, determination by ICP-OES

Remark:

- (*2) The substances are tested and calculated in terms of its respective elements and to the worst-case scenario. The report states the theoretical value of SVHC substances without consideration of the actual occurrence in the article.
- (*3) The substances are tested and calculated in terms of Cr (VI).
- (*4) The substance is tested and calculated in terms of Tributyl tin.
- (*5) The substances are confirmed and tested in terms of borate and the borate may come from the compounds other than SVHCs.
- (*6) The substances are UVCB (substance of unknown or variable composition, complex reaction products or biological materials), which are identified by its main constituents.
- (*7) Individual concentrations to the constituent of UVCB with an amount of < 0.01% were not considered by the calculation of the sum.
- (*8) The test results are based on microscopic and chemical evaluation.
- (*9) The substances are quantified in terms of Michler's ketone and Michler's base by LC-MS, as Michler's ketone or Michler's base was found exceeds 0.01%.
- (*10) The content oligomer is determined by Py-GC/MS.
- (*11) The content of diazene-1,2-dicarboxamide is analyzed in terms of its breakdown product.
- (*12) The substance is tested in terms of pentadecafluorooctanoate.
- (*13) The substance is tested and calculated in terms of Dioctyl tin.
- (*14) The substance is tested and calculated in terms of Monoctyl tin and Dioctyl tin.
- (*15) The substance is tested and calculated in terms of Dibutyl tin
- (*16) The tested material(s) was screened only for selected SVHCs. Selection of tests refers to the material type and application and the possibility of contamination during production & material specific contamination of the product.
- (*17) The other SVHCs which are not mentioned in test result were either not subject to testing according to remark *16 or less than report limit.
- (*18) The theoretical content of SVHC substances is calculated in terms of its respective elements. This material may contains the mentioned SVHCs, it is suggested to check the respective recipe if the theoretical content of the respective substance >0.1% in each article

General Terms and Conditions of Business of TÜV Rheinland in Greater China

1.	Scope	9.1	Any part of the work result ordered which is complete in itself may be presented by TÜV Rheinland for acceptance as an instalment. The client shall be obliged to accept it immediately.	9.2	If acceptance is required or contractually agreed in an individual case, this shall be deemed to have taken place two (2) weeks after completion and handover of the work, unless the client refuses acceptance within this period stating at least one fundamental breach of contract by TÜV Rheinland.	9.3	The client is not entitled to refuse acceptance due to insignificant breach of contract by TÜV Rheinland.	9.4	If acceptance is excluded according to the nature of the work performance of TÜV Rheinland, the completion of the work shall take its place.	9.5	During the follow-up step (if the client was unable to make use of the time windows provided for within the scope of a certification procedure for auditing/performance by TÜV Rheinland and the certificate is therefore to be withdrawn (e.g. performance of surveillance audits), or if the client cannot accept the certificate, tangible or intangible, that are supplied by the agreed date, TÜV Rheinland is entitled to immediately charge a lump-sum compensation of 10% of the order amount as compensation for expenses. The client reserves the right to prove that the TÜV Rheinland has incurred no damage whatsoever or only a considerably lower damage than the above lump sum.	9.6	Insofar as the client has undertaken in the contract to accept services, TÜV Rheinland shall also be entitled to charge a lump-sum damage in the amount of 10% of the order amount as compensation for expenses if the services is not called within one year after the order has been placed. The client reserves the right to prove that the TÜV Rheinland has incurred no damage whatsoever or only a considerably lower damage than the above mentioned lump sum.	10.	Confidentiality	10.1	For the purpose of these terms and conditions, "confidential information" means all know-how, trade secrets, documents, images, drawings, expertise, information, data, test results, reports, samples, project documents, pricing and financial information, customer and supplier information, technical and marketing techniques and materials, tangible or intangible, that are supplied or transferred or otherwise disclosed by one Party (the "disclosing party") to the other Party (the "receiving party"), in writing or orally, in printed or electronic form. Confidential information is expressly not the general knowledge collected or compiled or otherwise known by TÜV Rheinland (non-personal and not proprietary to the client) within the scope of the provision of services by TÜV Rheinland. TÜV Rheinland is entitled to store, use, further develop and pass on the data collected in connection with the provision of services for the purposes of developing new services, improving services and analysing the provision of services.10.2. The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential before passing it onto the receiving party. The same applies to confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information and the working days of oral disclosure. Where the disclosing party fails to do so within the stipulated period, the receiving party shall not take any confidentiality obligations hereunder towards such information. The client shall avoid using any third party platform and/or general document management system (TÜV Rheinland) to send any confidential information to TÜV Rheinland. Instead, the client shall send any confidential information to company email of TÜV Rheinland employees through its company email. If the client suffers from any data loss or damage (including but not limited to) caused by the adoption of any unauthorized confidential information sharing methods mentioned above, TÜV Rheinland shall be waived for any compensation liabilities. 10.3. All confidential information shall remain the property of the disclosing party and shall be disclosed to the receiving party and which is created during performance of work by TÜV Rheinland: a) may only be used by the receiving party for the purposes of performing the contract, unless expressly otherwise agreed in writing; b) may not be copied, distilled, published or otherwise disclosed by the receiving party, unless this is necessary for fulfilling the purpose of the contract or TÜV Rheinland is required to pass on confidential information to a third party for the purpose of the contract; c) may not be treated by the receiving party with the same level of confidentiality as the receiving party uses to protect its own confidential information, but never with a lesser level of confidentiality than that which is reasonably required. The receiving party may disclose confidential information received from the disclosing party only to those of its employees who need this information to perform the services required for the contract. The receiving party undertakes to oblige these employees to observe the same level of confidentiality as set forth in this confidentiality agreement. 10.4. Confidential information for which the receiving party can furnish proof that: a) it was generally known at the time of disclosure or has become general knowledge without disclosure of this confidentiality clause by the disclosing party; or b) it was disclosed to the receiving party by a third party entitled to disclose this information; or c) the receiving party already possessed this information prior to disclosure by the disclosing party; or d) the receiving party developed it itself, irrespective of disclosure by the disclosing party, shall not be deemed to constitute "confidential information" as defined in this confidentiality clause. 10.5. All confidential information shall remain the property of the disclosing party and the receiving party hereby agrees to immediately (i) return all confidential information, including all copies, to the disclosing party, and/or (ii) on request by the disclosing party, to destroy all confidential information, including all copies, and/or (iii) provide written confirmation of the destruction of the disclosing party in writing, at any time if so requested by the disclosing party but at the latest and without special request after termination or expiry of the contract. This does not extend to include reports and certificates prepared for the client solely for the purposes of fulfilling the obligation under the contract, which shall remain with the client. TÜV Rheinland is entitled to make file copies of such reports, certificates and confidential information that forms the basis for preparing these reports and certificates in order to evidence the correctness and completeness of the work performed and to comply with laws, regulations and the requirements of working procedures of TÜV Rheinland. 10.6. From the start of the contract and for a period of three years after termination or expiry of the contract, the receiving party shall maintain the confidentiality of confidential information and shall not disclose this information to any third party or use it for itself.
2.	Quotations	10.1	Any part of the work result ordered which is complete in itself may be presented by TÜV Rheinland for acceptance as an instalment. The client shall be obliged to accept it immediately.	10.2	If acceptance is required or contractually agreed in an individual case, this shall be deemed to have taken place two (2) weeks after completion and handover of the work, unless the client refuses acceptance within this period stating at least one fundamental breach of contract by TÜV Rheinland.	10.3	The client is not entitled to refuse acceptance due to insignificant breach of contract by TÜV Rheinland.	10.4	If acceptance is excluded according to the nature of the work performance of TÜV Rheinland, the completion of the work shall take its place.	10.5	During the follow-up step (if the client was unable to make use of the time windows provided for within the scope of a certification procedure for auditing/performance by TÜV Rheinland and the certificate is therefore to be withdrawn (e.g. performance of surveillance audits), or if the client cannot accept the certificate, tangible or intangible, that are supplied by the agreed date, TÜV Rheinland is entitled to immediately charge a lump-sum compensation of 10% of the order amount as compensation for expenses. The client reserves the right to prove that the TÜV Rheinland has incurred no damage whatsoever or only a considerably lower damage than the above lump sum.	10.6	Insofar as the client has undertaken in the contract to accept services, TÜV Rheinland shall also be entitled to charge a lump-sum damage in the amount of 10% of the order amount as compensation for expenses if the services is not called within one year after the order has been placed. The client reserves the right to prove that the TÜV Rheinland has incurred no damage whatsoever or only a considerably lower damage than the above mentioned lump sum.	15.	Retention of test material and documentation	15.1	The test samples submitted by the client to TÜV Rheinland for testing will be scrapped following testing or will be returned to the client at the client's expense. The only exceptions are test samples, which are placed in storage on the basis of statutory regulations or of another agreement with the client.	15.2	Changes applicable to the storage are stored at the premises of TÜV Rheinland. The cost of placing a test sample into storage will be disclosed to the client in the quotation.	15.3	If reference samples or documents are given to the client to be placed in storage at their premises or reference samples or documents must be made available to TÜV Rheinland upon request promptly and free of charge. If the client, in response to such a request, is incapable of making available the reference samples and/or documentation, any ability claims for material and pecuniary damage are waived by the client. The respective testing and certification that is brought forward by the client against TÜV Rheinland shall be voided.	15.4	The retention period for the documentation shall be 10 (ten) years after the expiry of the test mark process, unless the applicable legal requirements for EU/EEA certificates of conformity and GS mark certificates.	15.5	The costs of the handover and dispatch of the test samples for storage on the client's premises are borne by the client. TÜV Rheinland will be liable for the loss of test samples or reference samples from the laboratories or warehouses of TÜV Rheinland only in case of gross negligence.
3.	Coming into effect and duration of contracts	15.6	Termination of the contract	16.1	Notwithstanding clause 3.3 of the GTBC, TÜV Rheinland and the client are entitled to terminate the contract in its entirety or, in the case of a service contract, each of its parts, each of the combined parts of the contract individually and independently of the continuation of the remaining services with six (6) months' notice to the end of the contractually agreed term. The notice period shall be shortened to six (6) weeks in case of TÜV Rheinland is prevented from performing the services due to a force majeure event (see clause 17.1).	16.2	For good causes, TÜV Rheinland may consider giving a written notice to the client to terminate the contract with immediate effect, if: a) the client does not immediately notify TÜV Rheinland of changes in the conditions within the contract which are relevant for certification or signs of such changes; b) the client misuses the certificate or certificate of conformity or in violation of the contract; c) in the event of several consecutive delays in payment (at least three times); d) a substantial deterioration of the financial circumstances of the client occurs and as a result the payment claims of TÜV Rheinland under the contract are considerably endangered and TÜV Rheinland cannot reasonably be expected to continue the contractual relationship; e) in the event of any serious misrepresentation, be it intentional fraud or grossly negligent behavior of the managers, employees or agents of the client. If TÜV Rheinland, for reasons beyond its control, is temporarily or finally not able or entitled to continue or finalize the performance of the service, e.g. in case of force majeure, government interference, sanctions, loss of accreditation or notification, or other reasons, TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to a lump-sum claim for damages against the client if the conditions of a claim for damages exist. In this case, the client shall owe 15% of the remuneration to be paid until the end of the fixed contract term as lump-sum compensation. The client reserves the right to prove that there is no damage or a considerably lower damage. TÜV Rheinland reserves the right to prove a considerably higher damage in individual cases.	16.3	The client reserves the right to make use of the time windows for auditing/ service provision provided by TÜV Rheinland within the scope of a certification procedure and the certificate therefore has to be withdrawn (for example during the performance of monitoring audits). Clause 16.3 applies accordingly.	16.4	Force Majeure	16.5	"Force Majeure" means the occurrence of an event or circumstance that prevents or impedes a Party from performing one or more of its contractual obligations under the contract, if and to the extent that the Party is unable to prevent or avoid such event or circumstance by its reasonable control; and (b) that it could not reasonably have been foreseen at the time of the conclusion of the contract; and (c) that the effects of the impediment could not reasonably have been avoided or overcome by the Party.	16.6	Hardship	16.7	The Parties are bound to perform their contractual duties even if events have rendered performance more onerous than could reasonably have been anticipated at the time of the conclusion of the contract.	16.8	Notwithstanding paragraph 1 of this Clause, where a Party proves that: (a) the continued performance of its contractual duties has become excessively onerous due to an event beyond its reasonable control which could not reasonably have been expected to have taken into account at the time of the conclusion of the contract; and that it could not reasonably have avoided or overcome the event or its consequences, the Parties are bound, within a reasonable time of the invocation of this Clause, to negotiate alternative contractual terms which reasonably allow to overcome the consequences of the event.	16.9	Where Clause 16.2 applies, but where the Parties have been unable to agree alternative contractual terms as provided in that paragraph, the Party invoking this Clause is entitled to terminate the contract, but cannot request adaptation by the judge or arbitrator without the agreement of the other Party.
4.	Scope of services	16.10	The client receives a simple, unlimited, non-transferable, non-subschenable right of use to the contents of the work results produced within the scope of the contract, unless otherwise agreed by the parties in a separate agreement. The client may only use such reports, expert reports/opinions, test reports/results, results calculations, presentations etc. prepared within the scope of the contract for its own internal purposes. The client may not use such reports, expert reports/opinions, test reports/results, results calculations, presentations etc. prepared within the scope of the contract for any other contractual remedy for breach of contract, from the time at which the impediment causes inability to perform, provided that the notice thereof is given without delay. If notice thereof is not given without delay, the relief is effective from the time at which notice thereof reaches the other party. Where the effect of the impediment or event invoked is temporary, the above consequences shall apply only as long as the impediment invoked impedes performance by the affected Party. Where the duration of the impediment invoked has the effect of substantially depriving the contracting Parties of what they were reasonably entitled to expect under the contract, either Party has the right to terminate the contract with notification within a reasonable period to the other Party. Unless otherwise agreed, the Parties expressly agree that the contract may be terminated by either Party if the duration of the impediment exceeds 120 days.	16.11	The client receives a simple, unlimited, non-transferable, non-subschenable right of use to the contents of the work results produced within the scope of the contract, unless otherwise agreed by the parties in a separate agreement. The client may only use such reports, expert reports/opinions, test reports/results, results calculations, presentations etc. prepared within the scope of the contract for its own internal purposes. The client may not use such reports, expert reports/opinions, test reports/results, results calculations, presentations etc. prepared within the scope of the contract for any other contractual remedy for breach of contract, from the time at which the impediment causes inability to perform, provided that the notice thereof is given without delay.
